

Therm Line Man

food supplement

For men seeking to reduce body weight

Therm Line Man is a food supplement containing a unique combination of ingredients which contribute to maintaining healthy weight and enhance men's libido.

Garcinia cambogia contains hydroxycitric acid (HCA), which inhibits the synthesis of lipids and their deposition in the body.

Cayenne pepper, which is the source of capsaicin, and bitter orange contribute to burning fat.

Gymnema sylvestre contributes to reducing hunger and appetite for sweets.

Ginseng extract enhances men's libido while enhancing vitality and sexual condition and helping to trigger and enhance erection.

Zinc helps to maintain proper testosterone levels, selenium is involved in protecting cells from an oxidative stress.

SINETROL® is a patented fruit extract manufactured by FYTEXIA Ltd.
